

Kath and Kim: portraits from the City of Fremantle Art Collection

Self portraits and portraits of woman; mothers, grandmothers, partners and Girlie Werewolves.

Strong portraits of strong women in a range of media celebrate the power, diversity and longevity of this popular genre both in its contemporary and historical form.

Artists include; Jasmina Cininas, George Haynes, Kathleen O'Connor, Guy Grey-Smith, Angela Stewart, Kati Thamo and Karen Turnbull,

Portraits and figurative works are a strength of the City of Fremantle Art Collection which boasts over 1100 historical and contemporary artworks many made by artists who live or work in Fremantle. The City actively builds upon this holding by acquiring new works from local and national exhibitions, receives the winning print from the Fremantle Print Award and benefits from generous gifts from artists and donations through the Cultural Gifts Program.

Kath & Kim is located in the Kathleen O'Connor Gallery, upstairs at the Fremantle Art Centre.

For more information about the City of Fremantle Art Collection please pick up a copy of Revealing and Reading the Collection from the Gallery or visit the webpage www.freofocus.com.au and follow the links to Arts and Culture.

The City of Fremantle Art Collection Curator is available to meet visitors and conduct floor talks in the gallery by appointment on 9432 9828 or andrel@Fremantle.wa.gov.au.
